

“HONOR TO THE DEAD!”

Join us as we reflect on the solemn event that closed the 2nd Seminole War and honored those who perished in it.

Friday evening August 14th.

Welcome and talk at Flagler College, St. Augustine.

Six to eight PM in the Markland House, 102 King Street.
(Parking lot across from Markland House at the corner of King and MLK Ave.)

Featured speaker: Judge Howard O. McGillin, Jr. USMA, '81.
“Artillerists, Lawyers and other Rogues - From West Point to the Civil War by Way of the 2d Seminole War.”

Please register at: alison.m.simpson3.nfg@army.mil

Saturday morning August 15th.

Reliving the stirring parade and solemn interment ceremony of 1842.

- * Assemble at the historic St. Francis Barracks at 9:45 am.
- * Follow the marchers to the St. Augustine National Cemetery at ten.
- * Participate in the commemoration ceremony by the memorial pyramid.
- * Re-enactor's lunch and coin presentation follow. (See box below.)

This event is hosted by the Florida National Guard Historian.

The West Point Society of North Florida with the Seminole Wars Foundation are founding sponsors.

Please help underwrite the cost by joining the Support Brigade.

Complete this form and mail it, with a check for $100, payee W.P.S.N.F., to:
Paul Proios, 228 Whistling Run, St. Augustine, FL 32092. Email; paul.a.proios@gmail.com
I plan to attend the lunch: Yes ____ . No ____ . I will bring ____ guests. (Add $25 per guest.)
Your name for the program: _____

N.B. Participating re-enactors and Support Brigade contributors are invited to the lunch, will receive the commemorative coin, and be recognized in the program.
(Lunch fee for their guests is $25.) The morning's memorial proceedings are open to all.